You will receive notification by letter that your registration has been received and accepted. Upon arrival to the pageant on Oct. 14th, pick up your child 's assigned number at office. The girls/boys are brought up on stage in the order of the numbers assigned.

Registration at the Pumpkin Show Festival: Registration can also be done at the event on October 14th from 1pm to 1:45pm at the fairgrounds. Registration will be held in the main office at the fairgrounds. Please bring a check, cash or money order only payable to B & K Enterprise.

Pageant Theme: Fall Harvest. Use autumn colors, dark shades of gold, orange, burgundy, forest greens print. Girls must be dressed in semi-formal or dressy outfits. Your child's dress/suit should reflect the fall harvest of colors. Think of all the rich shades of fall in pumpkins, maple leaves, corn, apples, etc. Girls can carry baskets filled with pumpkins, fall flowers, apples, Indian corn and winter squash. Boys should be in a suit or jacket with dress shirt or your Sunday's Best. One King will be chosen from each age group. Visit our website to see winners from over the past years.

Judging: Will consist on scoring of the dress/suit, fall themed, hair and accessories, overall appearance, behavior on stage and more. This is a fun filled pageant and a great way for families to spend the day with your child and celebrate the fall harvest. Sponsors name will be read as contestant comes out on the stage. Any contestant that appears afraid, moms may walk them out on to the stage. Stage will be filled with pumpkins, mums, cornstalks and fall decorations. Bring your cameras and come out and have fun!

Prizes: Sashes, Crowns, Pageant Pins, Trophy, gift baskets & more.

Ribbon and goody bag for all contestants. Free hayrides for contestants.

Weather: In case of severe weather pageant will be held in a facility to be announced.

Entry Form: Must be signed and filled out in its entirety. The announcer will use this information to talk about your child. Call Kathy 856-765-0118 with questions.
